WILLINGNESS TO PARTNER – Acknowledging “Sweat Equity” Program Requirement

To be considered for Habitat homeownership, you and your family must be willing to complete a certain number of “sweat equity” hours. Your help in building your home and the homes of others is called “sweat equity,” and may include lot maintenance, helping with home construction, working at the Habitat ReStore, or other approved activities. You will also need to participate in homeowner education programs offered by Habitat for Humanity. A two adult household is required to perform a minimum of 500 hours; and a single adult family is required to complete 250 hours. Please indicate if you are willing to complete the required sweat equity hours and sign below.

INFORMATION FOR GOVERNMENT MONITORING PURPOSES

Please read this statement before completing the box below: The following information is requested by the federal government for loans related to the purchase of homes, in order to monitor the lender's compliance with equal credit opportunity and fair housing laws. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. The law provides that a lender may neither discriminate on the basis of this information, nor on whether you choose to furnish it or not. However, if you choose not to furnish it, under federal regulations this lender is required to note race and sex on the basis of visual observation or surname. If you do not wish to furnish the information below, please check the box below.
